Re: Netflix Video Privacy Settlement Class Objection

FILED

RICHARD W. WIEKING
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE

On July 30, 2012, I received an email advising of the proposed Netflix Privacy Litigation (case #5-11-cv-00379-EJD) where I was advised I was a member of the Class Action settlement. The lawsuit here can best be described as dubious at best and is clearly an attempt by Jay Edelson, Rafey S. Balabanian, Ari J. Scharg, and Chandler R. Givens of Edelson McGuire LLC as Settlement Class Counsel to enrich themselves at the expense of Netflix and subscribers who will ultimately bear the cost of the settlement. For the record, I have no interest in Netflix whatsoever other than being a subscriber.

I find the legal fees allocated to settlement excessive and the settlement itself does nothing other than encourage attorney's to locate lead plaintiffs to file questionable claims. While I have no intention to appear at the hearing, I would recommend the court disallow the proposed settlement.

Thank you for considering the above.

Sincerely

David R Wiedwald
